Mark Wohlschlegel

|
From:	Don Todd <dtodd@getliberty.org>
Sent:	Tuesday, April 17, 2012 11:22 AM
To:	Adam Bitely; Bill Wilson; Chip Gjertsen; Frank McCaffrey; Ray Wotring; Rebecca Difede; Rebekah Rast; Richard Manning; Robert Romano; Brad Tidwell; John Vinci; Mark Wohlschlegel; Nathan Mehrens; rmccarty
Subject:	FW: MyCare Stories: Robyn in Baltimore, MD

You tax money at work.

Mark;

This looks like another FOIA. How much money are they spending on this? I looks like pure propaganda to me.

From: HealthCare.gov [mailto:subscriptions@hhs.gov]
Sent: Tuesday, April 17, 2012 10:50 AM
To: Don Todd
Subject: MyCare Stories: Robyn in Baltimore, MD

Having trouble viewing this email? View it as a Web page.

Meet Robyn - A Mother from Maryland

"The first day in the NICU was $150,000," said Robyn Martin – the mother of a child born with a heart defect. "If he in five months used up the lifetime limit for him, my family would be in really dire straits. There's no question about it."
Read More →

Featuring people like Robyn, who don't have to worry about lifetime limits on their insurance coverage, MyCare is an initiative to educate Americans about new programs, benefits, and rights under the health care law.

- HealthCare Blog: Robyn-Care
- MyCare Video: Robyn M. in Baltimore, MD
- See all MyCare stories →

Giving Families Security and Peace of Mind

The health care law includes new consumer protections and coverage options that help families:

- Ending Lifetime and Annual Limits on Insurance Coverage
- Coverage for Children's Pre-Existing Conditions
- Coverage for Young Adults up to Age 26
For More Information

Read more about the Affordable Care Act at HealthCare.gov, find out what's changing and when, and learn more about how the law helps families.

Join the Conversation: Share your health care stories on Facebook or Twitter using the hashtag #MyCare.

Use this button to share this message with others:

Stay Connected with HealthCare.gov

Total Control Panel   Login

To: dtodd@getliberty.org   Remove this sender from my allow list

From: info99@service.govdelivery.com

You received this message because the sender is on your allow list.