Gentlemen:

We have received your January 12, 2012 appeal from the National Labor Relations Board's Freedom of Information Officer's December 29, 2011 partial denial of the above-referenced electronic Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. You particularly reference the statement that "[t]he Chief Information Officer informed this Office that there are no [e-mail Exchange repositories] for former Members Battista, Kirsanow, and Walsh, who also served during the specified time period."

The Agency needs an extension of time for processing your appeal because of the need to consult with other offices of the Agency. Accordingly, the Agency will require another ten working days, until February 29, 2012.

Please feel free to contact Susan Kehoe if you have any concerns or inquiries.
